

AJ Buildings Library Report

The AJ Buildings library is a database of more than 1,000 exemplar projects in British architecture, most from the last 20 years but including major projects back to 1900.

Copyright to drawings and photographs contained in the AJ Buildings Library is retained by the responsible architect or photographer.

Project summary: Bryanstone Road Extension - Knott Architects, 2009

Nov 27, 2012

Tom Knott

Bryanstone Road Extension
by Knott Architects
London (2009)

Extension to north London home distinct for its strips of cedar, glass and brick

Data

Begun Mar 2008
Completed Mar 2009
Floor area 34m²
Sector House
Total cost £127,000
Procurement JCT Minor Works
Address Bryanstone Road, London, N8, United Kingdom

Professional team

Architect Knott Architects
Project architect Tom Knott
Client Private
Structural engineer Muchael Baigent Orla Kelly
Main contractor Malcolm Shelton
Frameless Glazed Doors Glass UK

Photographs

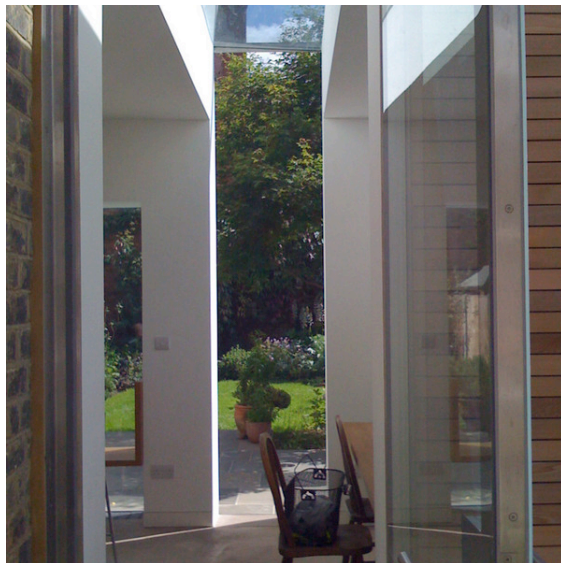

Photo credits: Knott Architects

629-640

Figure 1.5

